2019 is a Wrap Congratulations to our Las Vegas National, Local Stars

Adrienne Sternlicht and Bennys Legacy winning the Las Vegas $100,000 Longines FEI Jumping World Cup™

Forty pairs tested the course; Adrienne Sternlicht from Temecula, CA and Andrew Ramsay from Pleasanton, CA went head-to-head in the jump-off.

Ramsay went second in the jump-off having a speedy short-course, pulling a rail and taking second.

Jason McArdle and Elicole, riding for Fairbanks Valley Farms in Rancho Santa Fe, CA were the final pair to go competing for the $42,900 prize in the Markel Insurance Final.

Jason McArdle and Elicole finished second with a double-clear effort, in just 31.899 seconds. With Jason named Leading Gentleman for total points earned in 2019.

Karl Cook of Rancho Santa Fe, CA and E'Special P.S. galloped into the winner's circle in the $25,000 InIt2WinIt 1.40m Jumper Speed Stake, presented by the Omaha Equestrian Foundation.

Qualifying to compete at the final in Omaha next April.
